

Project Summary

Client:

Stolthaven

Location:

Port Alma, Queensland, Australia

Port Alma Bio Diesel Project

Project Summary:	The project involved the modification of existing diesel pipework in the tank farms to allow recirculation of biodiesel. Synertec performed the supply and installation of carbon steel pipework and associated valves at Stolthaven Port Alma as per the process description. Synertec also undertook the painting of the new pipework and valves to match existing as built drawings including weld maps. Some project features included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Process design drawings and 3D Modelling○ Removal of existing pipeline○ Supply of new materials, including valves, pipe, flanges, gaskets etc.○ Installation of pipe supports where required○ NDT inspection of 20% of total quantity of welds○ Rubbish removal○ Compliance with OH&S requirements○ Unloading and hoisting equipment
-------------------------	---